993 Register “Footsteps In The Ash” Evening Drive Thursday 25th February 2010

Join the 993 Register as ex PCV President and current Arthurs Creek 1st Lieutenant Michael Chapman provides a guided tour through some of the areas hardest hit by the Black Saturday bush fires 12 months ago.

Michael has chosen a personal drive that will enable the 993 Register to view the regions of Arthurs Creek, St Andrews & Kinglake to show the recovery of these hard hit areas on it's 12 month anniversary. Many of these areas found Michael and his crew on the front line.

Bridges Restaurant/Nursery in Hurstbridge was host to Julia Gillard releasing the book Footsteps in The Ash. The book is made up of stories and photographs as told and captured by survivors of the fires. Join us at Bridges for their famous “Parma Night” where you can browse the gallery of photographs used in the book. Prints are available for sale..

All the proceeds from the Sales of the book are being split between Arthurs Creek & St Andrews CFA's and it is hoped to raise from sales $50,000. The book will be available for purchase on the night.
